

A Champion's Approach to Health

With Isotonix[®] Champion Blend Plus

- Performance — Instantized Branched Chain Amino Acids (BCAAs) promote muscle growth and retention for both competitive athletes and weekend warriors.*
- Defense — Isotonix Champion Blend Plus uses the antioxidant Pycnogenol[®] to help combat free radicals and promotes optimal immune function with vitamin D3.*
- Energy — Activated B vitamins help to provide energy for the muscles and improve mood, making work and play that much easier and more enjoyable.*

Performance is the measure of success — that's why Isotonix Champion Blend Plus contains cutting-edge ingredients to support the needs of active adults. Because everybody needs the energy to meet the day's demands, this formula includes activated forms of the B vitamin group, which are more readily absorbed and processed by the body, as well as more effective. To help you stay performance-ready, Isotonix Champion Blend Plus provides antioxidant protection to help promote cardiovascular health. This nutritional powerhouse completes the package by helping to minimize occasional muscle fatigue with BCAAs.*

Utilizing the most advanced nutrient delivery system available anywhere — Isotonix — ensures your body is getting the best of all worlds: a product with no binders or fillers, rapid absorption, and delivering game-changing results — Isotonix Champion Blend Plus.*
